YES, THEY HAVE COME!

Those Alaska Refrigerators. There may be refrigerators that are just as good as the Alaska, but none better. They consume less ice.
They have the best circulation. They have no bad odor. In fact, they are so good we would rather sell an Alaska Refrigerator than any other on the market.

The New York Herald congratulates itself that, in an era of one cent papers and cheap sensationalism, it has attained a great circulation at the price of three cents, by simply giving the public clean, legitimate journalism. The ideas of Mr. Bennett are sound; he gives a good article, demands a fair price, and the public is willing to pay it. The New York Herald is a good example and will outline the bleached blouses of latter-day journalism.

This beautiful spring weather is bringing out the leaves and the flowers, and the place is now a thing of beauty.

JERRY'S PROCLAMATION

Will Play the Heel Fly to Speaker Reed.

MAKES LIFE BOTHERSOME

Says He Will Keep Up His Tactics Until Reed Reorganizes the House Committee—Advises Leader Bailey to Follow in His Wake.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—"Within two weeks, I expect to drive Tom Reed and his cohorts to cover or force them to allow the reorganization of the house committee," said Jerry Simpson to Scripps-McRae reporter today. "Already there is a break in the republican plan and a little more pressure will show whether Reed bosses house or vice-versa. Unless Leader Bailey re-sends from his present position of letting republicans follow the do-nothing policy, many of his followers will secede from his leadership and vote to force Reed into a corner. I will not give up this fight but will object to the transaction of all business when there is no quorum and neither ridicule nor threat will deter me from following out this policy."

THE INS AND OUTS.

THE KANSAS CITY FILMS.

CHICAGO, April 15.—Dan Stuart, of Carson City fame, has called the canard that the various films of the big fight were spoiled and that his pains and money were spent for nothing. The fight pictures will be protected by a copyright and are perfect, and will be ready inside of two weeks for exhibition.

An Insurance Swindle.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 15.—Linford Woods who was arrested for immense insurance swindles, now implicates a West Point instructor. Wood secured $12,000 a year premium, yet he had not money enough to buy a supper when arrested. His swindle was similar to the H. H. Holmes cases.

For United Fresh Terriers.

CHICAGO, April 15.—Many distinguished Presbyterian ministers met here today to consider methods for bringing the various Presbyterian church organizations of the world into closer harmony. No attempt was made to interfere with the complete autonomy of each body.

Offers a Bail.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—It is reported here that an improvement movement on the part of Spain in connection with the Cuban trouble, will be the issuance of an amnesty proclamation similar to that resulting in the surrender of 5,000 insurgents in the Philippines.

Killed Two Constables.

STURGIS, Ky., April 15.—Constable James Green was killed and Constable William Benson was fatally shot while trying to arrest two desperadoes named Cody and Hite for whom large rewards had been offered. The murderers escaped to the hills.

Crisis Close at Hand.

LONDON, April 15.—The continued sifting of the Greek irregulars across frontier into Turkey is bound to serve as a powerful irritant. Already Turkey has had an ample excuse to declare war and a formal declaration cannot much longer be delayed.

The University of Illinois Fund.

CHICAGO, April 15.—Spalding, president of the defunct Globe Savings bank and treasurer of the university of Illinois, has thrown the wreck of his own fortune in the half a million gap he made in the finances of the institution.

Father Knapp Dying.

BERLIN, April 15.—Father Knapp, known throughout the world through his famous water cure ideas, is dying at Worshofen, Swabia.

Bicycles as Baggage.

LANSING, Mich., April 15.—The house today agreed to a bill compelling railroads to accept bicycles as baggage.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY.

An American Citizen Locked Up in the Juarez Jail on Wrong Suspicion.

Magdalena Calderon, of 816 South Stanton street, an old time citizen of this city and a war veteran, was arrested at 10 o'clock last night, by the Juarez police as he was coming from an entertainment in the saloon De Obregon street, and locked up in the carcel.

Mr. Calderon had no idea at all what he was arrested for, and no explanation was vouchsafed him; and he was placed incommunicado where he will remain until tomorrow night when the charge against him will be made known officially. It is learned however, that Mr. Calderon was suspected of having been a member of the gang that made the attack on the Palomas custom house, and this was the cause of his arrest.

The Morning Telegraph charges Consul Mallen with having instigated the arrest, but Mr. Mallen denies this and says he had nothing to do with the charge against him.

In the mean time the family and many friends of the prisoner will present Consul Buford with a petition asking him to communicate at once with the state department at Washington and bring about Mr. Calderon's release at the earliest possible moment. Consul Buford has seen the accused and is confident he will be able to secure the imprisoned man's release.

Mr. Calderon formerly lived at Morency. He was second lieutenant of company G, Second regiment N. M.
Volts, and he is now receiving a pension of $36 per quarter payable at Knoxville, Tenn. The pension being numbered 830, 208 and dated Dec. 10, 1892.
It is well known that Mr. Calderon is a peaceful, quiet citizen, and that he was in this city at the time of the Palomas raid.

THE STARVING CUBANS.

The Sad Plight of the "Pearl of the Antilles."

MANY DYING OF HUNGER.

Over 200,000 People in Destitute Circumstances and Many Dying Like Cattle Weyler's Order Concerning the Inhabitants of the Cause of Destitution.

HAVANA, April 15.—Could President McKinley see the great misery now prevailing in Cuba he would probably take active steps to stop the cruel war.
Over 200,000 people are starving and from 60 to 70 die of hunger every day.
Of the 200,000 dying wretches, 3,000 are citizens of the United States and are engaged in peaceful pursuits. The condition of the people here is so wretched that it can hardly be believed in the United States. Weyler's orders concentrating rural population in small towns is the most inhuman degree ever issued. When the rainy season comes in May they will die by the thousands, for the pestilence will join with Weyler and hunger in killing human beings.

How Rivera was Captured.

HAVANA, via Key West, April 15.— A staff correspondent Scripps-McRae Press association secured an interview with the soldiers who were captured by the Spanish when General Rivera was taken. The soldier says the command was surrounded by the Spaniards but fought all day until Rivera fell. The Spanish found General Rivera lying on the ground, where a shell had shattered his right leg. Bacalva could have escaped, but remained to help his chief.

Toll Gate Raids.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 15.—Fresh toll gate raids in Kentucky are reported today. The raiders checking the gates and warning the collectors to take no more tolls at the peril of their lives. The raiders are armed with rifle.
The state militia, near Richmond, and the road officials are arming, and the next raid will mean a battle.

Escapes Penal Service.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—It is now generally conceded that Jos. Dunlop, the Chicago editor of the Dispatch, who was sentenced to pay a $10,000 fine and to serve two years in the penitentiary for publishing obscene advertisements, will escape the latter part of the punishment. Ill health is the cause of the pardon.

A Kentucky Fued.

JACKSON, Ky., April 15.—Kuklux and the Red Strings, two rival outlaw factions that have made this section a nest for anarchy, are here to answer to the court. There are twenty Red Strings and about forty of their rivals. Both sides are heavily armed, and an outbreak is liable at any moment.

The Kentucky Ballot.

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 15.—One hundred and nineteen legislators met in joint assembly today. The ballot resulted: Hunter 15; Blackburn 43. On the next ballot Hunter got 57 votes but was still two short. There was no change in the third ballot and the assembly adjourned.

Resignation of Civil War in Cuba.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Secretary of State Sherman has informally notified Spain that this government recognizes the state of civil war in Cuba, which demands better treatment to the prisoners taken in action. This action is in behalf of General Rivera.

Denies the Responsibility.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 15.—The Greek representative here has made a formal apology to the Turkish foreign office for the acts of the Greek insurgents in crossing the frontier. He dis-claimed all responsibility of the part of the Greek government.

Booked for the State Department.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—A prominent republican had a conversation today with the president who told him he would in a few days send in the nomination of ex-Congressman Bellamy Storer, of Ohio, to be assistant secretary of state.

Central American Revolution.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—A telegram received from the United States consul at Tegucigalpa, capital Honduras, says that a revolution has broken out and the republic is under martial law.

Levy Wont Sell.

NEW YORK, April 15.—William J.
Bryan's home for purchasing Jefferson's estate at Monticello, Va., by popular subscription, has come to naught.
Levy the owner declining to sell at any price.

In Executive Session.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The senate today after a few minutes session went into executive session on the arbitration treaty.

A Presidential Nomination.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The president today named Grady W. Whitford, to be United States district attorney of Colorado.

Still on Market.

NEW YORK, April 15.—Silver, 62; lead, 3.30; Mexican dollars, 49.

White Oaks Country Resources.

The present coal market at El Paso amounts to about 15,000 tons of coke per month in the consumption of the smelters at El Paso—in Arizona and Chihuahua, says W. A. Hawkins in the New Mexican. The coal sales at El Paso amount to about 40,000 tons per month. This amount of coal comes from Cerrillos and Blaineburg in New Mexico and from Thurber in Texas.
The coke in the El Paso market is from Cerrillos and Blossburg in New Mexico, from McAllister in the Indian Territory and from Birmingham, Alabama. The percent of ashes in the coke determines the value of the latter; the Cerrillos and Blaineburg coke commands about $8 per ton in the market while the percentage of ashes in the Birmingham coke being about 16 per cent in the Cerrillos coke. In addition to the vast amounts of coal, coke and mineral sections that the new railroad will open up and which are extensively enough to furnish an immediately large and constantly increasing traffic, the new road will also open up one of the finest potato sections in the United States, namely the rich farming sections of the Sacramento to the mountains. There are dozens of valleys in these mountains where the equals to the best Gruel potatoes can and will be grown in large quantities, as soon as rail transportation can be secured to haul them to market.

The Magnificent and vast timber resources of the White and Sacramento mountains will also be made useful by the new road, if built, and will aid in increasing the volume of traffic. The length of the road will be about 165 miles and will be nearly all down grade from White Oaks to El Paso, and as he heavy freight will go from the north to the south, this is a great item to be considered. All but 20 miles of the road will be in New Mexico, only the first 20 miles being in the state of Texas.

French Opera Company.

The French Opera company, 100 strong, went south last night. They saw-d around the streets for a while are leaving this city, and the idea occurred to more than one person, why could not the management of the opera house arranged to give them one night here for it was known weeks ago that the troupe was going south to the City of Mexico from San Francisco. The opera people were thoroughly French, although they did not appear to go much on dress and order, and as she disdained to wear corsets, which might have got her shape into better shape, great wiles of fat were easily discerned rolling over each other from shoulders and hips, and she was on the dime museum order; but then she didn't care a sou, so why should the El P so public?

The other evening General and Mrs. Diaz were walking on the Paseo, when a gentleman was taking to the comisaria two pelados who had been fighting. The friends of the combatants followed the gentlemen and tried to bribe him to release the two men, but the gentleman steadily refused. The president and his lady overheard the whole conversation as they were walking a few yards ahead, but they were not reproached. Afterwards the president inquired the name of this gentleman, sent him a present in money and gave instructions that he should be promoted on the first vacancy.—Alex. Herald.

The clerks in the postoffice department have to write more than 95,000 letters to notify as many ambitious Americans that their applications for office have been received. The officials say that the hard times have set everybody trying to get a job under the government. The first week of the present administration 22,000 applications for office were received at the postoffice department alone; the second week, 25,700; the third week 45,623. The largest proportion from any state was from Kansas.

The women of Denver won their first signal victory under equal suffrage in the recent city election. They nominated, worked for, and triumphantly elected a ticket which will deal an icy blow to the sporting and saloon element who comprised its most bitter opponents. They were masters of the situation, and the municipal life of Denver will be purified for another two years.

Evangeline and the fair Lady Isabel went in it with Doc Ward, Peg, Jimmy Watts and the rest of the boys at the McGinty entertainment next Tuesday night at the opera house.

The jury in the district court case of the state vs. J. J. Godfrey charged with burglary, is out this afternoon.
